

FACT SHEET

- Exhibition title: Once Upon A Time... Artists & Storytelling
- Dates: 25 June to 26 July 2009
- Location: Embankment Galleries, Somerset House, Strand, London WC2R 1LA
- Public Information: +44 (0)20 7845 2526, www.courtauld.ac.uk/macuratingexhibition.
- Opening hours: Daily 10.00 am to 6.00 pm
- Admission: Free
- Summary: Discover an exhibition, curated by students from The Courtauld Institute of Art, which seeks to narrate stories in surprising and exciting ways. This exhibition forms the core project of The Courtauld's MA programme, Curating the Art Museum. Drawing on eight major series of prints, drawings and watercolours from The Courtauld Gallery and five works from the Arts Council Collection, the exhibition features over 100 pieces.
- Curators: Once Upon A Time... is the second annual exhibition from The Courtauld Institute of Art's MA Curating the Art Museum programme which this year has eleven students from the UK, Europe and the United States.
- Gallery Talks: There will be a gallery talk given by the student-curators of the exhibition each Wednesday at 1.15 pm, free of charge. A number of other events will be held during the exhibition. For more information, please visit www.courtauld.ac.uk/macuratingexhibition.
- How to get there: Nearest underground stations: Temple, Covent Garden, Charing Cross and Embankment Stations. Overground to Waterloo, Charing Cross or Blackfriars. Buses servicing the Strand include numbers 6, 9, 11, 13, 15, 23, 77a, 91 and 176, while the River Bus Service can be taken to Embankment and Savoy piers. Pedestrian access to Somerset House is available from Victoria Embankment, Waterloo Bridge (via a new footbridge link) or from the Strand.
- Access: Somerset House is accessible to wheelchair users.